Yes

In 2010 I authored the 1st. Bill in California honoring the Sikh Community Called Sikh Awareness and Appreciation month

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 181

And I Authored ACR 20, Logue. Postsecondary education: instruction in world religions: Sikhism.

Read both passed bills below.

ACR181, Logue. California Sikh American Awareness and Appreciation Month.

This measure would designate November 2010 as California Sikh American Awareness and Appreciation Month. It would recognize and acknowledge the significant contributions made by Californians of Sikh heritage to our state and afford all Californians the opportunity to understand, recognize, and appreciate the rich history, shared principles, religion, faith, and role Sikh Americans play in furthering mutual understanding and respect among all peoples.

WHEREAS, California and our nation are at once blessed and enriched by the unparalleled diversity of our residents; and

WHEREAS, Among this unprecedented diversity in California, there reside an estimated 200,000 Americans of Sikh origin, comprising nearly 40 percent of the nation's estimated Sikh population; and

WHEREAS, Sikh immigrants have resided in California for more than a century, with the first Sikh immigrants believed to have labored on railroad construction projects, in lumber mills, and in the agricultural heartlands of the Sacramento, San Joaquin, and Imperial Valleys; and

WHEREAS, The first Sikh temple (Gurdwara) in California was established in Stockton in 1912, and Sikh temples have since been established in communities throughout California; and

WHEREAS, While Sikh Americans have distinguished themselves in numerous areas of endeavor, they have demonstrated particular success in the areas of agriculture, trucking, medicine, and in the creation of small, family-owned businesses; and

WHEREAS, Yuba City, California, boasts one of the largest confirmed populations of Sikh and Punjabi Americans in the nation; and

WHEREAS, Dalip Singh Saund was the first Sikh American and Asian American member of the United States Congress; and WHEREAS, Dr. Bhagat Singh Thind struggled and fought for Asian Indians to be allowed to become American citizens; and WHEREAS, Dr. Narinder Singh Kapany of Palo Alto is acknowledged by many to be the father of fiber optics; and I authored this bill

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 20

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 23

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 20— Relative to postsecondary education.

ACR 20, Logue. Postsecondary education: instruction in world religions: Sikhism.

This measure would recognize the need for the inclusion of Sikhism in world religions, Eastern religions, Asian, and South Asian courses at all postsecondary educational institutions and advise the concerned academic governing bodies, deans, and department chairs to include Sikhism in their institution's world religions, Eastern religions, Asian, and South Asian courses.

WHEREAS, California is blessed and enriched by the unparalleled diversity of our residents; and

WHEREAS, The United States Declaration of Independence states that all men are created equal, and this truth is emphasized by Sikh Holy Scriptures through hymns like, "One Father, and we are children of the One," and "Recognize ye, all Humanity as the Same"; and

WHEREAS, Sikh Americans appreciate and enjoy various citizen's rights, including the "freedom to worship as you wish." Our country is a country of immigrants and a pluralistic society, with numerous ethnic groups practicing many different religions, including Sikhism; and

WHEREAS, In our highly diverse state, over 250,000 residents follow Sikhism, comprising

3 of the total estimated 750,000 Sikh population of our country; and

WHEREAS, Dr. D.S. Saund, a Sikh, became a naturalized United States citizen in December 1949, almost 30 years after immigrating to the United States in 1920. Dr. Saund first served as a judge in the Imperial Valley (1952–56) and then became the first Asian American elected to the United States House of Representatives in 1956, and other Sikhs have recently served as members of city councils and as mayors; and

WHEREAS, By dint of their hard work, the Sikhs have distinguished themselves in many fields, especially in agriculture, trucking, security services, small family owned businesses, medical services, engineering, and information technology and science, as noted in Assembly Concurrent Resolution 181 (Res. Ch. 161, Stats. 2010) and in Assembly Concurrent Resolution 97 (Res. Ch. 60, Stats. 2012); and
